Huberman named Canadian commercial arbitration firm of the year

Toronto litigator, mediator and arbitrator Marvin J. Huberman's firm has been recognized by M&A Today as Law Firm of the Year — Commercial Arbitration — Canada.

Huberman, a chartered arbitrator and specialist in civil litigation, was awarded the designation in the business publication's Global 2016 guide.

The M&A Today Awards takes votes from more than 163 countries. The annual awards program extends over "regional, national and international boundaries" and reaches out to the readers "in an Empirical, impartial and comprehensive way," the website states.

An independent panel of judges reviews the votes within each category and assesses the following in their considerations: the strategic nature, complexity and scale of work conducted; whether the work conducted was done so within budget and in a timely manner; and any groundbreaking or innovative processes used during completion of the work.
